Student Life

Green Oaks, a place where education takes precedence, is a edifice of higher learning where a challenge takes on a new dimension as it faces many students who are matriculation in this industrious world of diversity.

From baking cookies to manipulating the home row keys of a computer, to writing proofs or analyzing a Shakespearian Sonnet, students here welcome challenges and invite them into their curricula.

As one visits the corridors, he may hear melodic tunes emanating from the music department or he may be amazed at a new chant produced by the Giantland cheerleaders staff. As he progresses a future executive from the DECA department may approach him, or he may be appalled by a scientist as he studies changes in the Chem-con class.

Giantland has prepared many prominent professionals in the educational arena. Many have returned to say thanks to their mascot, and others have become members of Green Oaks staff.

The hallow halls of learning which was once a mass of Oak trees, opens its gates every morning to those who keep on the go. The students anxiously await the ringing of the bell as the doors open and welcome them. One student positively says, "It's all about us."

Something is definitely "brewing" here.

Green Oaks' students readily cheer

As they view the mirror of time
Here is a long anxious line.

Journalist, Dramitist, Doctors too.

Lawyers, technician — welder
son duty

Teachers, preachers — judge and jury

have come to spread the news
Please don't be confused.

These are all samples
From the Green Oaks campus
who have come to discuss Green Oaks has always been about us!!

Seniors

Seniors

The seniors in the class of '87 struggle to the road of success.

They fought to reach their goals
striving for the best.

They never stopped until they reached the top.

Those who found no top, or high point to reach

Will continue to rise and fight
all challenges they meet.

Administration

Principal Solomon Birdsong

After being away for eleven years, Mr. Solomon Birdsong comes back to Green Oaks High School as principal. He is striving for the best by keeping everyone aware of what's going on at the school. He enjoys helping students when they need it. Mr. Birdsong prides in knowing this school is all about the students.

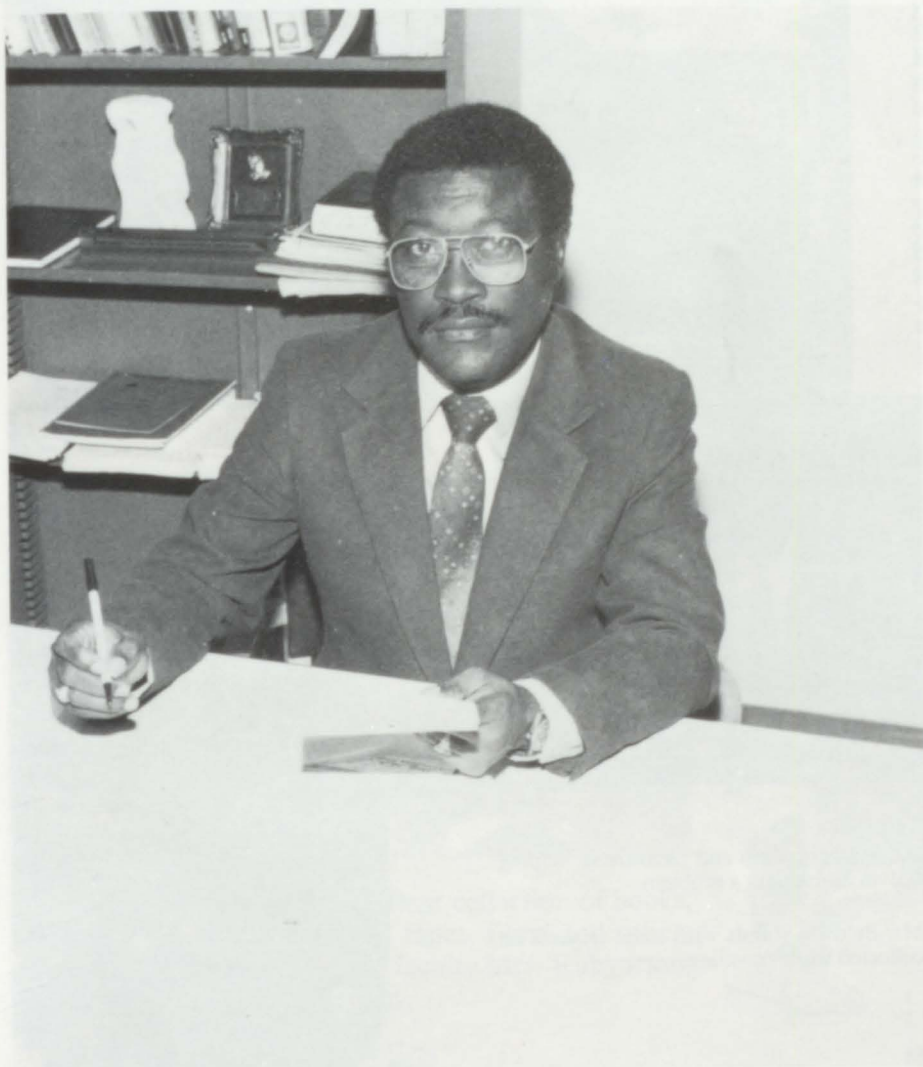

Mr. Birdsong is hard at work while sitting at his desk. He takes a little time out to give us a joyous smile.

For Mr. Birdsong, the work never ends. We must remind him that all work and no stopping makes him the cream of the crop with a cherry topping.

Mrs. Hill and Mr. Birdsong look over the school's books.

Although he's a busy man, Mr. Birdsong still has a little kid in him. He likes to spend his spare time observing and collecting model cars.

Huey J. Hunt Assistant Principal

Mr. Hunt's job can be a difficult one at times. He is Administrator Assistant principal and his duties include supervision of students attendance, an working effectively with classroom discipline. He must also maintain and open-door policy which stimulates staff and parental involvement. Most of all he must have a deep concern for people.

John Baldwin Assistant Principal

Mr. John Baldwin is Assistant Principal in Instructions at Green Oaks. He gives help where it is needed, working with both students and teachers to enhance the overall instructional program. Mr. Baldwin constantly encourages students to strive to expand their educational horizons. When he is not at school working he is traveling. International traveling is Mr. Baldwin's hobby. He has been to all of the countries in Western Europe, as well as Hungary, Yugoslavia, Mexico, Japan, and the People's Republic of China. His favorite destinations are France and England, where he earned his Master's degree at the University of London in 1978.

Mr. Baldwin is currently concluding his thirteenth year at Green Oaks and says he has found many experiences here over the years to be very enriching. He looks forward to continued growth of the school and expects it to become an increasingly vital part of the community.

Mr. Baldwin takes and pleasure in helping Calvin Smith with a problem.

Mr. Baldwin stands with some trinkets he collected while traveling.

An annual event that generates quite a deal of interest among the senior is the selection of class favorites. This is the time when favoritism goes out the window and those who have proven faithfully and true over the years emerge victorious. Good grades, tenacity and the ability to preserve are the qualities exhibited by those elected as Most Likely to Succeed. Dancing ability, athletic prowess, clothing conditioned and charm and personality are other qualities that determine favorites.

Gwen Terry — Miss Cover Girl

The annual Calendar Girl Pageant which is sponsored by the Elites (Elegant Ladies in today's Educational Society) is looked forward to each year with eager anticipation by both male and female students. Guest Speakers, faculty, and students all provided the talent needed to present a variety of assemblies for Green Oaks during the 1986-87 session.

Ranging from demonstrations on basketball handling techniques to politicians, the assemblies were informative, entertaining, and looked forward to by all students.

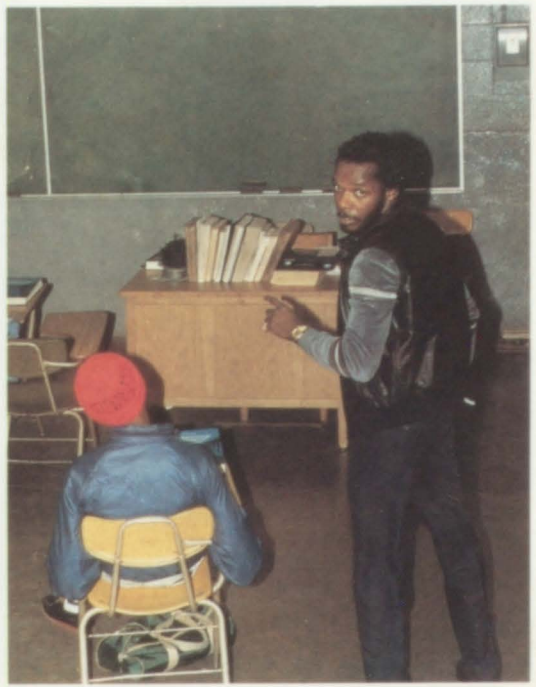

Pep Assemblies added color and zest as the Spirit Stick was presented each week to the class that showed the most enthusiasm.

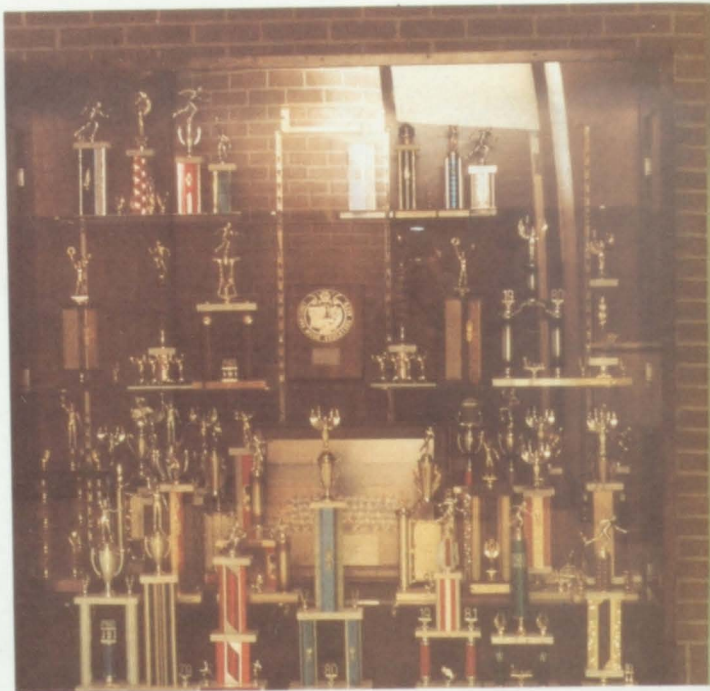

The Student Council sponsored the Town House Meeting where issues were debated.

We engaged in a variety of activities during the year. Some were fun, others not so much fun. However, we enjoyed them none the less.

Class time presented the opportunity to catch up on the latest news, purpose for the next class or just stare at the photographs. At the other time we just stopped on the shade for a brief rest.

More About Us

The Junior Class was very proud of their accomplishments for the year. The big bash, "The Prom," will always be a pleasant memory.

Reigning as class favorites were Tammy Nelson and Vontego Jones.

They Helped to Make It Happen

The total school was involved in providing the best experiences possible for all Green Oaks family. Teachers, secretaries, maintenance worked hard in helping students and keeping the school environment a pleasant and comfortable place.

Student Council

The student council worked hard this year with the Assistant principal, Mr. Hunt, in correlating activities such as pep rallies, assembly programs and setting up intra-mural activities on campus.

The Green Oaks choir and orchestra enjoyed many successful performances during the year. The discipline, team unity, and music knowledge were evident as each group made appearances.

The choir and orchestra combined their talents for an entertaining and staged Christmas program.

Throughout the year these groups did a marvelous job as they performed for the student body, other schools and various clubs.

JROTC

The Junior ROTC program was designed to develop students for positions of leadership. Students take ROTC training in addition to their regular school work. During the summer between the junior and senior years, select students receive field training at camp.

Course work includes drills, lectures, demonstrations, and field trips.

Marching

The 1987 Giant Band is a group of spirited loyal, and proud musicians — proud of their musical ability, their director and of their school. They spent many hours of concentration on Music and marching in order to make the many performances throughout the season. Mr. Albert Jackson, director worked diligently on routines, different arrangements and schedules in order to get the best performance of each member.

Lisa Cathron, Featured twirler is right.

The Band provided excellent entertainment for pre-gamed and half time during the football season. Their participation during the season was a very important aspect of Giant Spirit.

The band also participated in several parades in the city and throughout the Ark-La-Tex area.

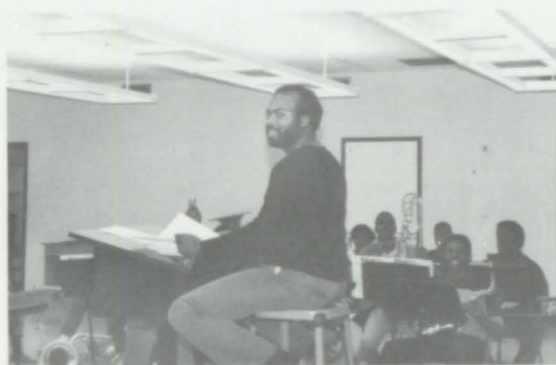

Green Oaks Band

The Green Oaks Marching Band performances were not limited to football games and pep rallies, they also participated in other activities such as the Grambling State Universities Homecoming Parade.

Band routines and formations would not be complete without the snap of the flags. Carrying flags this year were (standing, l to r) Georgia Washington, Dutchess Wynn, Cindy Young, Miracle McGee, and Sylvia Tolbert. Seated Jessica Smith, Tijuana Pipkins, Shriya Morris and Kormanese Petterson.

Giants Is Their Name

The Giants enjoyed a good year even though it was the first time in seven years the team did not participate in past season play. Spirits wer high and the potential is there for an explosive season next year.

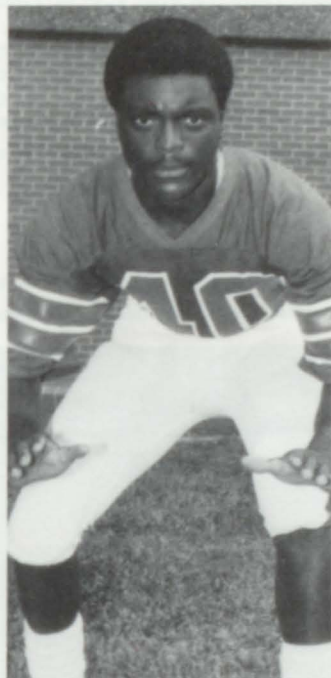

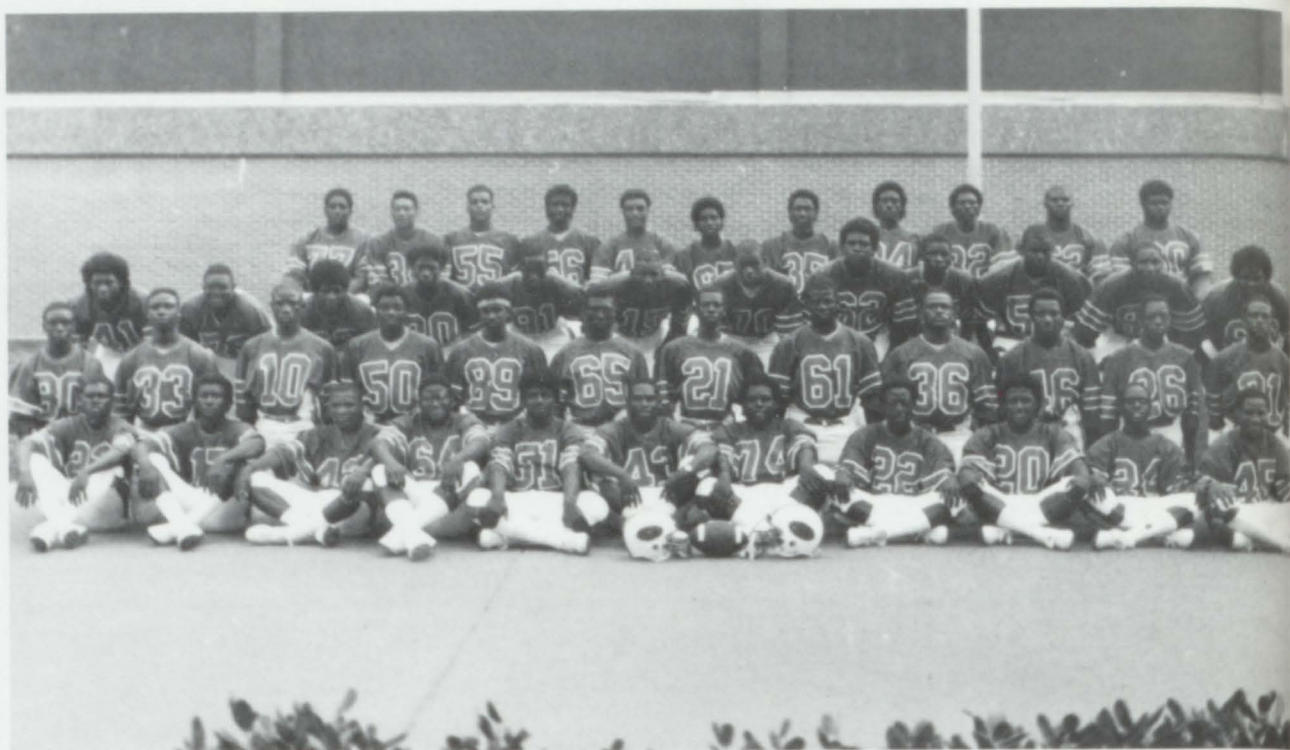

Score board reflects one of the triumphant moments of the season.

Football Is Their Game

Roovelroe Swan made the 1986 All District Defensive team. Two defensive players are Jay King and James Taylor.

Tyrone Diggs was a great defensive end. Abraham Ester did most of the running for the giants.

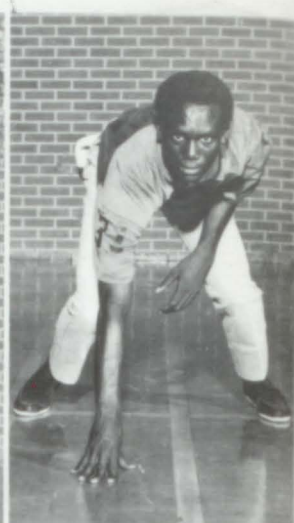

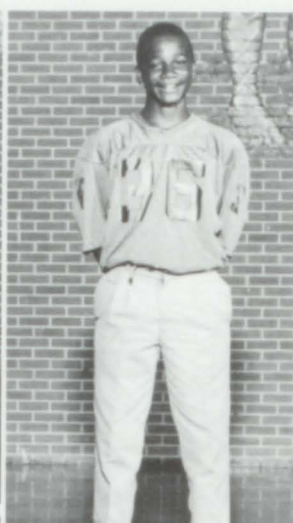

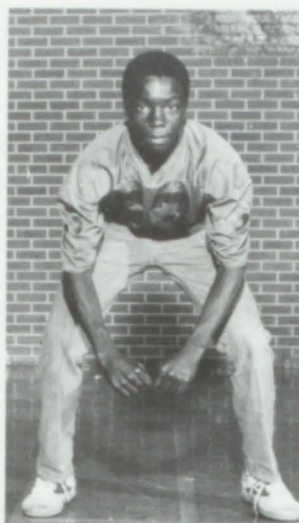

The offensive line has the responsibility of establishing a good running game and allowing the quarterback time to pass the ball. One of the best offensive lineman was Demetrius Mitchell. His efforts helped the quarterback Robert Smith pass for a winning touchdown in a thrilling 13-6 victory over Huntington. Ardie Smith, was effective in the 28-14 win over Parkway. Earl Jones, was the chief factor in the 20-14 win over Fair Parks. The prime element of the defensive team were linebackers J. Holt, R. Swan, R. Gipson. Adding to the support was D. Clay.

Defensive Players who helped the Ninth Grade team have success were Ronald Bagley, Terrace Payne, and Marcus McCarter.

Giant Baseball

Keyymen on the Giant team were outfielder Darnell Green, Joe Holt pitcher, and back-up catcher. Darnell's hot hand at the bat created an excellent RBI average. He was also a back-up catcher. Joe was third base man when he was not pitching. James Taylor was probably the most outstanding player of the year. He was named to the District All-Star Team. When James did not pitch he was third baseman or catcher.

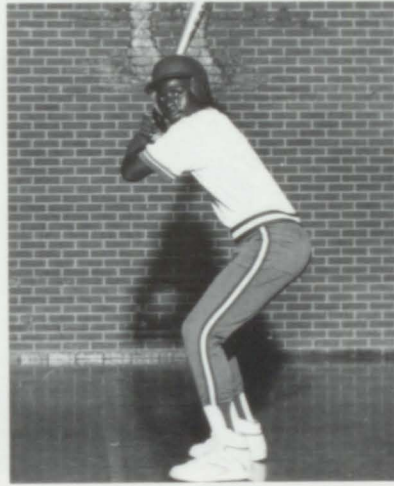

As you can see most of the team were really versatile players and this helped to make success.

Under the coaching of Hayes, Gipson the Giant baseball team enjoyed the best season ever. For the past several years the Giants had struggled and remained in the cellar in district play. This year, however, experience and a positive attitude brought about a winning situation. Pictured at left are Michael Mitchell, outfielder, Shauncy Mitchell, short stop, and A.C. Whitaker first baseman.

Pictured below are Paul Whitfield, Pitcher, Eric Harris, second baseman, and Darnell Green outfielder. These players had good batting averages and outstanding contributions to a successful year.

A Successfull Season

Lady Giants Another Great Year

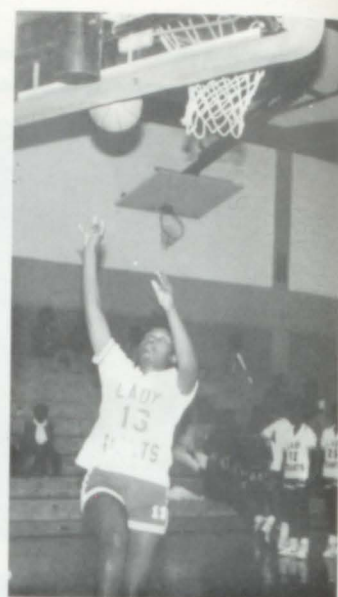

The Lady Giants made gigantic studies throughout the 1987 season.

Coached by Willie Stevens and Assisted by Pam Bolten, the team ranked first and second in all polls.

Breaking records was the "in" thing with this group of young ladies. Felicia Hall broke the school record by making 42 points in one game and is the all time highest scorer for girls. Alisa Adams ranked high in the rebound category and Shannon McCullough made outstanding Contributions in assists.

Underclass teammates were always there when needed. The team's theme song "Lean on Me" was evident in each game.

Right: Felicia Hall, #21, goes up for two points. Tunya Roberson #13 and Sabrina Bradford #20 make the action look easy.

The Giants got off to a slow start in the season, but bounced back in the second half of the season. District Competition was tough however, the Giants gave their best in each game. This year team starters are sophomores and juniors which means the Giants will be "awesome" come next year.

Giant Basketball

This year's team could be best described as "a good situation that will definitely get better." Coach Willie Stringer completed his thirteenth season at Green Oaks directing a young and talented group of gifted sophomores. Assisting Coach Stringer were Roderick Foppé and Aldon Kelly. Outstanding players for the year were Tony Williams, Thatcher Kelly, R. Swan, and Paul Whitfield. Graduating seniors were Corey Mitchell, Joe Holt, Patrick Lars, Paul Whitfield, Calvin Smith, Robert Myers and Malvin Murff.

G.O. Track Team Had “Great Expectations”

The varsity track team was competitive this year with a group of very talented sophomores. Kevin Porter, shot putter, did not set any records this year but with two years left he should become an outstanding performer.

Emanuel Brooks was a stellar performer in the high hurdler as was Rovelroe Swan. Thatcher Kelly and Emanuel Brooks were the main stays in Javelin competition.

There were a few pleasant surprises from Curtis Fulton, Abraham Ester, Kevin Whitfield, Louis Jones, Wayne Williams, and Earl Brown.
